Peng Pai   s2154448

1. Reason: If we want to test the controller, you need to display the image during the test. Therefore, we need additional libraries to test the controller. The user interface needs to be displayed during testing, so it will take a lot of time in testing.

Solution: Modify the code so that it displays 'selectionID' instead of images during testing. By comparing selectionID, we can determine if the program has Bugs.